Miah Donates Her Hair for The Little Princess Trust

In May this year, KpH and its staff sponsored a brave little 10 year old girl called Miah, who cut off and donated 9cms of her hair to raise funds and awareness for The Little Princess Trust.

The Little Princess Trust is an amazing charity that provides wigs, free of charge, to help children cope with the loss of their hair through cancer or other illnesses.

Miah raised an outstanding £1,139.40, smashing her target of £300, every penny of which has been donated to this inspirational cause.
